

Contents

The Interdependence of Human Rights . . . . .	1
Naomi Lott
Part I The Interdependence of the Right to Play with Other Rights
The General Principles of the UNCRC and the Right to Play . . . . .	29
Naomi Lott
Playing with Identity? The Interrelationship Between the Right to Play and the Right to Identity . . . . .	59
Tristan Cummings
Exploring the Intersection and Interdependence of a Right to a Healthy Environment and a Child's Right to Play . . . . .	85
Fiona MacDonald
Digital Play: Children's Rights, Risks and Responsibilities . . . . .	105
Simone van der Hof and Ton Liefaard
Promoting Positive Behaviour... and Play in Schools: A Rights-Based Perspective . . . . .	133
Jonathon Sargeant
Children's Right to Play and Social Protection Under the UNCRC: Implementation and Contestations in West Africa . . . . .	155
Daniel Ogunniyi and Oladimeji Ifedayo Idowu

Part II The Interdependence of the Right to Play and Other Rights for Specific Groups of Children

- The Right to Play for Children with Disabilities: Perspectives from England and India . . . . . 179
Seamus Byrne
- Towards Implementation? Recognising the Importance of the Right to Play for Refugee and Migrant Children . . . . . 203
Claire Raissian
- Playing with Children's Health? The Right to Play for Children
Who Are Sick . . . . . 231
Sandra S. Cabrita Gulyurtlu and Adrian Voce OBE
- Girls and the Right to Play: A Question of Equality, and More . . . . . 255
Özlem Lakatos and Naomi Lott