
Contents

List of figures	x
List of tables	xi
List of contributors	xii
Acknowledgments	xv
1 Law and psychology: an introduction Rebecca Hollander-Blumoff	1
PART I FRAMEWORKS, THEMES, AND THEORIES
2 Through a lens brightly: a glimpse into the history of law-psychology through its textbooks Brian H. Bornstein	17
3 The legitimacy of legal institutions Tom R. Tyler	34
4 Small world behavioral law and economics Gregory Mitchell	49
5 Law and emotion Terry A. Maroney	64
6 A system justification perspective on law, human behavior, and society Daniela Goya-Tocchetto, Rebecca Ponce de Leon and John T. Jost	83
PART II PSYCHOLOGY AND LEGAL PROCEDURE
7 Trial by jury: psychological research contributions to an enduring legal institution Mikaela Spruill and Valerie P. Hans	108
8 Jury selection and race Catherine M. Grosso and Barbara O'Brien	122
9 Who cares about evidence scholarship (and why psychologists should)? Justin Sevier	136
10 Standards of proof: theories and evidence Robert J. MacCoun	152
11 The brain in court: from neuroscience “revolution” to neurotech upgrade? Amanda Pustilnik	169

PART III THE PSYCHOLOGY OF CRIMINAL LAW, CRIMINAL PROCEDURE, CRIMINAL TRIALS, AND CRIMINAL BEHAVIOR

- 12 The psychological causes of criminal confessions 183
Stephanie Madon, Kyle Scherr and Ryan Ditchfield
- 13 Eyewitness testimony: the perilous effects of contamination and social influence 199
Jennifer E. Dysart
- 14 Expanding conceptualizations of youths' juvenile legal decision making 215
Emily Haney-Caron and Lili Ramos
- 15 The psychology of arson 229
Nichola Tyler and Theresa A. Gannon

PART IV PSYCHOLOGY AND LEGAL DOCTRINE

- 16 What we know and don't know about the psychology of tort law 245
Jennifer K. Robbennolt and Valerie P. Hans
- 17 Psychologically hazardous real estate transactions: the land installment contract 261
Stephanie M. Stern
- 18 Corporate law and psychology 277
Donald C. Langevoort
- 19 The psychology of health law 291
Kenworthy Bilz and Qiaoyuan Zhi
- 20 Environmental law and psychology 306
Arden Rowell, Kenworthy Bilz and Howard Jyun-Syun Li

PART V PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIETY

- 21 Expressive law and social norms 328
Janice Nadler
- 22 Legitimacy, relational norms and reciprocity 343
Ben Bradford and Jonathan Jackson
- 23 Judicial behavioral realism about implicit bias 361
Jerry Kang
- 24 How people attend to race: implications for legal judgments of video evidence 379
Yael Granot and JingYan Xu

25	Overcoming identity-based hierarchies: understanding psychological barriers and motivating social justice through intergroup contact Rachel D. Godsil, Kim Forde-Mazrui and Linda R. Tropp	394
PART VI THE PSYCHOLOGY OF LAWYERS AND LAWYERING
26	The psychology of lawyers in litigation and negotiation Jean Sternlight	419
27	The social psychological study of access to justice Victor Quintanilla	434
PART VII THE GLOBAL REACH OF LAW AND PSYCHOLOGY
28	Psychology and justice in Taiwan: the emerging focus on miscarriages of justice Yee-San Teoh and Kai-Ping Su	452
29	The behavioral turn in international legal scholarship Eva van der Zee	463
	Index	475