
Contents

List of contributors	viii
Introduction: animal law between jurisprudential discipline, moral imperative, and advocacy	xii
Tomasz Pietrzykowski and Birgitta Wahlberg
PART I ANIMAL LAW AS A JURISPRUDENTIAL DISCIPLINE
1 Animal law unveiled: defining a new era of legal advocacy Birgitta Wahlberg and Pamela D. Frasch	2
2 From constitutional animal law toward interspecies constitutionalizing Charlotte E. Blattner	15
3 Towards animal flourishing through international law Anne Peters	35
4 The evolution of animal law scholarship's theoretical foundations through critical animal law studies Iyan Offor	59
5 Animal rights and human rights – an impossible equation? Elina Pirjatanniemi	90
PART II THE QUEST FOR ANIMAL STATUS
6 Sentience, agency, and animal status Andrzej Elżanowski	115
7 Bridging the gap between jurisprudence and questions of legal status Joshua Jowitt	141
8 Legal dereification of animals Tomasz Pietrzykowski and Małgorzata Lubelska-Sazanów	160
9 Legal personhood and animals Visa Kurki	178
10 The concept of animal dignity in Swiss animal welfare law Gieri Bolliger	188
11 Animal rights and the rights of nature: between law and politics Cezary Błaszczuk	205

PART III DOMAINS AND PRACTICES OF ANIMAL LAW

12	Administrative control mechanisms and preventive animal protection Birgitta Wahlberg	225
13	Animals in scientific research: an analysis from the perspective of Swiss law Vanessa Gerritsen	238
14	Animals and food production from a United States perspective Jessica Chapman	260
15	Offences against animals in Finland Tarja Koskela	285
16	The institution of the animal protection ombudsperson Simone Gräber and Ines Schnur	309
17	Landmark cases in animal law Eva Bernet Kempers and Ankita Shanker	326

PART IV TRANSDISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES ON ANIMAL LAW

18	Basics of animal behavior and welfare assessment Laura Hänninen and Anna Valros	356
19	Animals and religious traditions Olav Hammer and Karen Swartz-Hammer	370
20	Animal rights and indigenous traditions in the century of anthropocentrism Mari-Ann Susi	391
21	Economics and animals Jim Leitzel and Sabina Shaikh	409
22	Using Environmental, Social, and Governance corporate non-financial disclosure regulations to improve animal welfare Jamie McLaughlin	427
23	New welfarism in animal law Veera Koponen	449

PART V ANIMAL LAW IN PROGRESS: ADVOCACY, STRATEGIC LITIGATION, AND THE WAYS TO THE FUTURE

24	Strategic litigation and animal law development Vegard Bø Bahus	462
25	Improving animal law by means of strategic litigation: the case of the UK Edie Bowles	471

26	Animal advocacy in the European Union Camilla Björkbom	482
27	Advancing the protection of all animals utilizing policy Erica Sullivan	509
28	Animals and international law: a rhetorical perspective Tero Kivinen	518
29	Envisioning an inter-species justice Eric L. Sugarman	537
	Index	548