
Contents

List of contributors	viii
Foreword – legal epistemology: what is its basis and scope? Geoffrey Samuel	x
Research handbook on epistemologies of law: introduction Luca Siliquini-Cinelli and Joshua Neoh	1
PART A LEGAL KNOWLEDGE IN THEORY: PHILOSOPHICAL PERSPECTIVES
1 Imagination: the neglected dimension of legal thinking Bartosz Brożek and Marek Jakubiec	8
2 A convergence of legal pluralism and legal realism to expound legal epistemology Neofytos Sakellaridis Mangouras and Charles Ho Wang Mak	22
3 Temporalities and the epistemology of historical injustice adjudication Harison Citrawan	34
4 Rhetoric and epistemology in the legal context Federico Puppo, Serena Tomasi and Silvia Corradi	49
5 Can contract law be good? When the reasonable person goes to market Renata Grossi	61
6 The faithful person as the legal person Alex Deagon	76
PART B LEGAL KNOWLEDGE IN PRACTICE: SOCIOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES
7 The other side of legal knowledge: the Lacanian discourse as legal epistemology Dennis Wassouf	92
8 The paradox of objectivity: objective legal knowledge in a socio-political context of creation and use Sacha Sydoryk	110
9 Epistemology of equilibrium Tomáš Havlíček	118

- 10 Theories and practices of knowledge and the universal particular in epistemology 131
Antonios E Platsas
- 11 The burden of knowing, the joy of ignorance 143
Robert Herian

PART C CONCEPTUAL ANALYSIS OF LEGAL KNOWLEDGE: ANALYTIC JURISPRUDENCE

- 12 Intuition as a source of legal knowledge 160
Jonathan Crowe
- 13 Legal epistemology from a natural perspective: the role of practical reasoning in thinking like a lawyer 172
Constance Youngwon Lee
- 14 Is it possible to have legal knowledge without legal inference? 187
David Tan
- 15 Dworkin's right answer thesis 201
Liam Sandison and Joshua Neoh

PART D LEGAL KNOWLEDGE ACROSS BORDERS: COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVES

- 16 Disrupting boundaries in legal epistemology: updating modern legal systems with the rights of nature in a comparative perspective 214
Thiago Burckhart
- 17 Models as tools of legal cognition 226
Wojciech Graboń
- 18 A logic of discovery and verification for comparative legal science 241
Davide Gianti
- 19 Is the expression 'theory' problematic? 258
Geoffrey Samuel

PART E REFORM OF LEGAL KNOWLEDGE: LAW REFORM

- 20 What molluscs tell us about environmental law 277
Maité Andrade and Loïc Pillard
- 21 The construction of knowledge in financial regulation 288
David Murphy
- 22 Who can tell if an offender is truly remorseful? Judges' use of psychologists' and psychiatrists' evidence of remorse 301
Steven Tudor and Michael Proeve

23	Legal epistemologies: what is going on in the classroom? Molly Bellamy	314
24	Engendering the rule of law: tautology or trick? Margaret Thornton	328
PART F LEGAL KNOWLEDGE OF THE FUTURE: LAW AND TECHNOLOGY
25	Learning to think en masse : trading selectivity for comprehensiveness in the age of databases Camille Bordere	342
26	Epistemic trustworthiness of AI: (the necessity of) explainable AI in legal decision-making Andrej Krištofík	355
27	'Emotional facts' in virtual environments: epistemological and legal status Mario Ricca	368
28	Legal epistemology and artificial intelligence: can computers (like students) learn and apply law (and will law faculties become intellectually irrelevant)? Geoffrey Samuel	388
29	Why law may very well be computable: the case of the reasonable person Luca Siliquini-Cinelli	402
	Index	420