

Contents

LIST OF PLATES.....	VII
INTRODUCTION	1
Chapter 1: Framing an Understanding of Liturgical Art.....	9
A Living Participation of the Faithful	10
The Push for Liturgical Participation Prior to Vatican II	13
Full, Conscious and Active Participation.....	19
The Principle of Participation Leading to Liturgical Adaptation	27
Reframing an Understanding of Liturgical Art.....	32
Conclusion	38
Chapter 2: A Commitment to the Contemporary I.....	39
Modern Art Theory and Liturgical Art.....	40
Present-day Art Theories Applied to Art within Liturgical Space	69
Conclusion	85
Chapter 3: From Modern to Postmodern: Lieven Boeve's Theology of Interruption	87
Postmodern Recontextualization as Interruption	88
Interruption as a Theologically Motivated Task	96
Interruption that Endorses Dialogue with the Other	101
The Need for New Models and Images of Jesus	107
Images that Generate a Sensitivity to Interruption.....	110
Conclusion	114
Chapter 4: Theology of Interruption and Postmodern Strategies in Art Today	115
Principles of Art Identified as Postmodern	116
Challenging Norms Embedded within Artworks from the Past	120
Return of the Human Figure and Religious Content in Art	127
Theological Interruption on a Visual Plane.....	135
Conclusion	140

Chapter 5: A Commitment to the Contemporary II	141
Christian Visual Tropes in a Postmodern Frame.....	142
Postmodern Recontextualization of Christian Iconographic Images.....	152
Conclusion.....	180
Conclusion	183
Liturgical Art that Fosters Liturgical Participation	183
Contribution and Implications	186
PLATES	193
BIBLIOGRAPHY.....	203
APPENDIX A: INDEX OF TERMS RELATED TO ART.....	213
APPENDIX B: PRESENTATION OF APOSTOLA APOSTOLORUM, EASTER TRIDUUM 2017	217