

Contents

Notes on the Contributors	vii
Preface	ix
1 Robert Kvaček The Birth of Czechoslovakia and Considerations Leading Up to It	1
2 Jaroslav Kučera Between Wilhelmstraße and Thunovská: Financial Support from the Reich for the Sudeten German Party, 1935–8	19
3 Jindřich Dejmek Camill Hoffmann and His Berlin Political Diaries: An Important New Source on the History of Czechoslovak Diplomacy and Czechoslovak- German Relations in the 1930s	39
4 Jindřich Pecka The Czech Resistance, the Party System, and Party Allegiance during World War II	64
5 Vojtěch Žampach The Expulsion of the Germans from Brno and the Immediate Consequences, 30 May to 7 July 1945	85
6 Petr Mareš Waiting for Godot: American Policy and the Czechoslovak Elections of May 1946	157
7 Milan Drápala A Life of Illusion: The Politics of Vítězslav Nezval	177
Index	226