

Contents

Acknowledgements	13
Preface	15
Introduction	19
Theory, methods, and structure	37
Part 1: Economic Perspective
Chapter 1: Do Czechs know and trust official economic statistics?	47
Chapter 2: Do Czechs want equality?	55
Chapter 3: What is the price of equality and inequality in Czech society?	60
Chapter 4: Are there too many university graduates in the Czech Republic?	68
Chapter 5: What does undeclared work tell us about Czech Society?	74
Chapter 6: Are illegal drugs and prostitution bad for Czech society?	81
Chapter 7: What are the attitudes of Czechs towards climate change?	89

Part 2: Historical Perspective

- Chapter 8: Who voted for the Communists in the election of 1946? 101
- Chapter 9: Why did Czechs and Slovaks allow their leaders to dissolve Czechoslovakia in late 1992? 111
- Chapter 10: Are Czechs more satisfied with their lives today than under communism? 119
- Chapter 11: What is current public opinion towards the Velvet Revolution? 126

Part 3: Political Science Perspective

- Chapter 12: What does Czech “Miss Democracy” look like? 135
- Chapter 13: Are some Czechs in love with a political party? 141
- Chapter 14: Why do Czechs like non-politicians in politics? 146
- Chapter 15: Are Czechs nostalgic for life under communism? 153
- Chapter 16: Do Czechs care if ‘Big Brother’ is watching? 160
- Chapter 17: What is lustration and what does it tell us about Czech society? 167
- Chapter 18: Where are Czech voters created? 177
- Chapter 19: Should the Czech Republic introduce compulsory voting? 182
- Chapter 20: Can some Czechs correctly select election winners from looking at photos? 189

Chapter 21: Are Czechs' voting choices inherited?	195
Chapter 22: What can be learned from analysing Czech election ballot papers?	200
Chapter 23: Who has 'nascent political ambition' in the Czech Republic?	206
Chapter 24: How to get elected to the Czech Parliament?	213
Chapter 25: Do Czech citizens recognize political parties' logos and does it matter?	220
Chapter 26: How many Czechs are "know nothings" when it comes to politics?	226
Chapter 27: What is Czechs' level of knowledge about refugees and asylum seekers, and is it important?	234
Chapter 28: What does opposition to a US radar station tell us about Czech public opinion?	242
Chapter 29: What do volunteer Czech political scientists know?	247
Chapter 30: Czexit?	256

Part 4: Psychological Perspective

Chapter 31: What are the main personality traits of Czechs?	265
Chapter 32: Do Czechs think they know more than they really do?	270
Chapter 33: Why are some Czechs good forecasters?	276
Chapter 34: Are attractive young Czechs intelligent?	283

Chapter 35: What is the 'climate of opinion' in the Czech Republic?	287
Chapter 36: What does the Stevens' Power Law tell us about Czechs' perceptions of the number of immigrants?	294
Chapter 37: What does a study of a Czech internet user tell us?	302
Part 5: Sociological Perspective
Chapter 38: Are Czech values unique?	313
Chapter 39: Are Czechs a nation of grumblers?	319
Chapter 40: Is religion dead in the Czech Republic?	325
Chapter 41: Why do Czechs mistrust their police and courts?	330
Chapter 42: Does the Czech Republic have a permissive society?	335
Chapter 43: What is the nature of sexual behaviour in Czech society?	341
Chapter 44: Is it possible to predict who will marry who in Czech society?	348
Chapter 45: Is marriage an outdated institution in the Czech Republic?	355
Chapter 46: When do Czechs become adults?	360
Chapter 47: Do older Czechs behave fairly toward younger and future generations?	366

Chapter 48: Why is it unpopular to be old in the Czech Republic?	371
Chapter 49: Is there equal treatment of ethnic minorities in the Czech Republic?	377
Chapter 50: Why do Czechs fear foreigners?	382
Chapter 51: Are Czechs prejudiced?	390
Chapter 52: Does Czechs' use of the words "Roma" or "Gypsy" in daily conversation matter?	397
Chapter 53: Why does it make sense to use computer simulation to study residential segregation in the Czech Republic?	406
Chapter 54: What do Czechs think of newcomers?	414
Chapter 55: How do Czechs spend their time?	422
Chapter 56: What's in a name?	428
Chapter 57: Did you know the Czech Republic is a nation of bookworms?	436
Conclusion and cross-validation	444
Bibliography	469
About the authors	531
Index	533