
Contents

List of contributors	viii
Preface and acknowledgments	xvii
1 Introduction to the Handbook on Global Constitutionalism : protecting rights and democracy while binding power Anthony F. Lang, Jr. and Antje Wiener	1
PART I HISTORICAL ANTECEDENTS
2 Global constitutionalism: the ancient worlds Jill Harries	23
3 Medieval constitutionalism Francis Oakley	35
4 Global constitutionalism in the early modern period: the role of empires, treaties and natural law Martine van Ittersum	46
5 The Enlightenment and global constitutionalism Chris Thornhill	59
6 Modern historical antecedents of global constitutionalism in theoretical perspective Michel Rosenfeld	76
PART II POLITICAL AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS THEORIES
7 Cosmopolitanism and global constitutionalism Garrett Wallace Brown	89
8 Liberal theory Iain Ferguson	101
9 Constructivism and global constitutionalism Jan Wilkens	115
10 Realist perspectives on global constitutionalism Oliver Jütersonke	129
11 Critical theory Gavin W. Anderson	140

- 12 The English School and global constitutionalism 152
Filippo Costa Buranelli
- 13 Postcolonial global constitutionalism 166
Sigrid Boysen
- 14 Feminist approaches to global constitutionalism 185
Ruth Houghton

PART III LEGAL THEORIES

- 15 Natural law at the foundation of global constitutionalism 208
Mary Ellén O'Connell
- 16 International legal constitutionalism, legal forms and the need for villains 225
Jean d'Aspremont
- 17 Interactional legal theory, the international rule of law and global constitutionalism 240
Jutta Brunnée and Stephen J. Toope
- 18 The shifting relationship between functionalism and global constitutionalism 253
Jeffrey L. Dunoff
- 19 Global constitutionalism and international public authority in the crisis of liberal internationalism 265
Armin von Bogdandy, Matthias Goldmann and Ingo Venzke

PART IV PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICES

- 20 Global constitutionalism and the rule of law 294
Mattias Kumm
- 21 Balance of powers 308
Eoin Carolan
- 22 Constituent power in global constitutionalism 318
Peter Niesen
- 23 Human rights as transnational constitutional law 331
Samantha Besson
- 24 Proportionality as a global constitutional principle 346
Anne Peters
- 25 Written versus unwritten: two views on the form of an international constitution 363
Bardo Fassbender

26	Transnational litigation networks: agents of change in the global constitutional order Jill Bähring	373
27	Human rights, sovereignty, and the use of force Sassan Gholiagha	395
PART V INSTITUTIONS AND FRAMEWORKS
28	International judicial review Başak Çalı	410
29	Legislatures M.J. Peterson	424
30	Executive and exception William E. Scheuerman	437
31	Federalism: from constitutionalism to constitutionalization? Thomas O. Hueglin	448
32	The UN Charter and global constitutionalism? Michael W. Doyle	460
33	Functionalism, constitutionalism and the United Nations Jan Klabbers	477
34	The European Union and global constitutionalism Jo Shaw	490
35	The International Criminal Court and global constitutionalism Andrea Birdsall and Anthony F. Lang, Jr.	508
36	Global commercial constitutionalization: the World Trade Organization Joel P. Trachtman	519
PART VI NEW HORIZONS
37	Global constitutionalism and outer space governance Adam Bower	529
38	The political economy of global constitutionalism Christine Schwöbel-Patel	542
39	Global religion in a post-Westphalia world Susanna Mancini	556
40	Constitutionalism and pluralism Neil Walker	568
	Index	580