Contents

Principal author, editor and contributors ix
Acknowledgements xi
List of abbreviations xiv

Introduction 1
Evangelos Raftopoulos

PART I FUNCTIONAL CONTEXTUALIZATION, ARCHITECTURE AND GOVERNANCE ENGINEERING OF THE AARHUS CONVENTION REGIME

1 The emerging universality of environmental democracy 16
Elli Louka
1. From the Rio Declaration to the Aarhus Convention 16
2. Aarhus principles in international environmental instruments 17
3. Aarhus Convention and Barcelona Convention: shared goals and values 20
4. Aarhus Convention principles in the African system of human rights 23
5. Aarhus Convention principles in the Inter-American system of human rights 25
6. Green democracy in Latin America: the Escazú Agreement 27
7. Aarhus Convention principles in the European system of human rights and EU law 28
8. Aarhus Convention principles in the Constitutions of Algeria, Egypt, Morocco and Tunisia 32

2 Architecture and governance of the Aarhus Convention and benefits of accession 33
Elli Louka
1. Aarhus Convention and its evolution 33
   (1) First Pillar: Right to Information 33

(2) Second Pillar: Right to Participation 35
(3) Third Pillar: Access to Justice 38
2. Governance and implementation 39
3. Aarhus Convention regime process 43
4. Benefits/costs of accession 44

PART II INTERLINKAGES AND COMPLEMENTARITIES OF THE AARHUS CONVENTION REGIME WITH INTERNATIONAL STUCTURES AND PROCESSES: "BIOS THEORETIKOS" (THEORETICAL LIFE)

3 The normative function of the Aarhus Convention's interlinkages with international structures and processes: scope, operations, and perspectives (general analysis) 49
Evangelos Raftopoulos
1. Horizontal normativity in international order and treaty interlinkaging: the Aarhus Convention regime 49
(1) Unveiling the Theoretical Language of the Horizontal Architecture of the International Legal Order 49
(2) Treaty Normative Interlinkaging 52
2. Interlinkaging under Article 3(7) of the Aarhus Convention and Almaty Guidelines 58
(1) Contextuality and Field of Application 60
(2) Phased-process Operation 60
(3) Participatory Application 62
(4) Interlinkaging Directives 62
3. Regime-based structural support process at work: the development of collective diplomatic strategy and the Aarhus Centres 64
(1) Structural Support Pattern 64
(2) Collective Diplomatic Strategy 67
(3) Aarhus Centres 69

4 The normative function of the Aarhus Convention's interlinkages with international structures and processes: specific applications (focused perspectives) 71
Evangelos Raftopoulos, Georgios Raftopoulos
1. Interlinkaging with International Financial Institutions (IFIs) 71
(1) Conventional and Institutional Interlinkages: An Overview 71
(2) The World Bank 73

(3) The European Bank for Reconstruction and Development 79
(4) The European Investment Bank 84
2. Interlinkaging with decision-making processes of international organizations: promoting environmental transparency in the ICAO 91
3. Interlinkaging with international trade negotiation process: promoting the Aarhus Convention in EU trade agreements, WTO processes, and other developmental contexts 96
(1) The Trade Agreements Context 96
(2) The World Trade Organization Context 98
(3) The Developmental Context of the Belt and Road Initiative 100
4. Interlinkaging with technological processes: implementing the Aarhus Convention in international technology governance negotiations 104
(1) Geo-engineering 104
(2) Genetically Modified Organisms 121
5. Interlinkaging with human rights governance: protecting environmental defenders under Article 3(8) of the Aarhus Convention 130

5 Complementary interlinkages: attaining sustainable development goals through the implementation of the Aarhus Conventional regime 136
Evangelos Raftopoulos
1. Overview 136
2. Aspects of interlinkages between SDGs and the Aarhus Convention regime 137
3. Complementary interlinkages in relation to international activities 144

PART III PARTICIPATORY GOVERNANCE IN DECISION-MAKING AND MULTILATERALISM IN NEGOTIATING ACCESSION TO THE AARHUS CONVENTION

6 Unlocking the Aarhus Convention decision-making and negotiating processes to advance participatory environmental governance 152
Evangelos Raftopoulos

1. Strengthening transboundary environmental decision-making process for inclusive governance 152
2. Building capacity to negotiate environmental interlinkages in international fora 156
3. Harnessing the potential of Aarhus Centres to build capacity for environmental governance-by-dialogue 159

7 Negotiating creatively the accession to the Aarhus Convention 165
Evangelos Raftopoulos
1. The architecture and management of accession for countries outside the ECE region 165
Morocco Ante Portas 166
2. The case of Guinea-Bissau's accession 168
The Accession Process 168
3. Infusing multilateralism in the accession process 170
A Prenegotiation Phase for a Mediterranean Approach to Accession 171

8 Recommendations and conclusions 177
Evangelos Raftopoulos, Elli Louka

Annex I: Survey questionnaire 186
Annex II: Survey questionnaire respondents and results 193
Annex III: List of interviewees 206
Bibliography 207
Index 217