

Contents

Author Biographies	xi
List of Contributors	xvii
Copyright acknowledgements	xix

The Political Grammar of Agreements in the Late Medieval and Early Modern West: An Introduction	1
Isabella Lazzarini, Luciano Piffanelli, and Diego Pirillo

PROLOGUE: SOURCES AND TEXT TRADITION

1. Diplomatic Sources on Peacemaking in the Late Medieval and Early Modern West (14th–16th Centuries): Letters—Acts—Treaties	33
Néstor Vigil Montes
2. At the Roots of the History of Diplomacy: Writing, Preserving, and Publishing a Peace Treaty (1454/5–1735)	54
Isabella Lazzarini

PEACEKEEPING: POLITICAL AND CONFESSIONAL PACTS

3. Keeping the Peace and Defending Christendom: The Shaping of the Holy Roman Empire as a Treaty-Based Multilateral Order (14th–16th Centuries)	79
Duncan Hardy
4. Peace and Territory in the Burgundian and Habsburg Low Countries: The Post-Revolt Settlements of 1421–1427 and 1576–1577	99
Bram De Ridder
5. Giving the Heretics a Stand: The ‘Compacts’ and ‘Concordats’ of Jihlava (Basel) in the Long Struggle for a Peace Agreement between the Roman Church and Bohemian Hussites (1436)	120
Klara Hübner
6. Peacemaking as a Written Work in Progress: Texts and Players (Italy, 15th–16th Centuries)	139
Francesco Senatore

7. Dealing with a Discordant Hydra: Members of the Swiss Confederation in a Constant Struggle for Good Neighbourly Relations 155
Heinrich Speich
8. Peacemaking in the Context of Religious Violence: The Edict of Nantes and the Fragility of Conflict Resolution 173
Brian Sandberg

PEACEMAKING: FOREIGN RELATIONS
AND RELIGIOUS TREATIES

9. From Tlemcen to Pisa: Negotiating the Peace in 1358 191
Mohamed Ouerfelli
10. A Century of Failure? Making Peace in the Hundred Years War 211
David Green
11. Negotiating for Peace and Trade with the Mamluks: From Truce to Decree 230
Frédéric Bauden
12. Invisible Treaties: The Governors of Algiers and the Strategic Use of Peace Negotiations during the 16th-Century Ottoman–Habsburg Mediterranean Struggle 247
Francesco Caprioli
13. On the Diplomatistic Nature of the Treaties of Cateau-Cambrésis (1559): Rule or Exception? 265
Roseline Claerr
14. On the Failure of Treaties: Bristol 1575 282
John Watkins

INTERSECTIONS: LAW, LITERATURE, ETHICS,
PHILOSOPHY, AND PEACEMAKING

15. Negotiation, Peacemaking, and Treaties: An Early Medieval Perspective 305
Jenny Benham
16. Peacemaking in Late Medieval Ius Commune 323
Dante Fedele
17. Signed, Sealed, Delivered: Ratification, Delay, and the Time of Tragedy 343
Timothy Hampton

18. The Bridge of Peace: Religious Peace, Oblivion, and the Sovereign's Clemency 360
Michaela Valente
19. Peace and Treaties in the Political Thought of Francis Bacon 378
Samuel Garrett Zeitlin
20. 'The Resurrection of a Body Whose Limbs Were Extremely Dispersed': Reframing Peace and Peace Treaties in Leibniz's Work (17th–18th Centuries) 396
Luciano Piffanelli
21. Negotiating on the Frontier: Indian Treaties and the Republic of Letters 423
Diego Pirillo

EPILOGUE: AFTERLIVES

22. Remembering Westphalia: Rights Talk in Times of 'Domestic Jurisdiction', 1648 and 1948 445
Jane O. Newman
- Index* 471