

Contents

I Study	9
1 Introduction	11
2 Seasons of the church year and selected repertoire	13
3 Catalogue and sources	23
3.1 Catalogue	24
3.2 Sources	26
3.2.1 Northern French group (f)	28
3.2.2 Aquitanian group (a)	29
3.2.3 Italian group (i)	30
3.2.4 German and Central European group (g)	30
4 Antiphons in Evangelio for the time after Pentecost	33
4.1 Layers of the repertoire: the oldest core of the series?	35
4.2 The oldest notated record of the post Pentecosten series: Chartres, Bibliothèque municipale 47	43
4.3 Antiphons with more than one melody	46
4.4 Conclusion	60
5 Epistle antiphons	65
6 Source groupings for post Pentecosten antiphons	69
6.1 Source groupings by antiphon text	69
6.2 Source groupings and melodic tradition	78
Conclusion	83

A Description of the Calculations for Figure 1	87
B Table of Concordances	89
Bibliography	95
Primary sources	95
Secondary literature	97
II Catalogue	101
Editorial Preface	103
Abbreviations	106
Antiphons post Pentecosten	107
Index of antiphons	269