

Contents

Introductory statement /7

Antiquity /9

The Renaissance /13

Classicism /17

Romanticism /25

Historicism /29

Secessionism /33

Modernity /39

Villas no. 1 – no. 60 /44

From Kotěra to the National Style and the Dutch inspiration /254

Towards a New Architecture /256

The Baba Exposition of 1932 /260

The Heroic Era /268

Baťa's Zlín /276

From 'White Functionalism' to 'Materiality' and Romanticism /279

Lubomír and Čestmír Šlapeta:
Do we know how to make our home? /285

From Individualism to Collectivism /288

Conclusion /295

Villas no. 61 – no. 120 /296

Guide to the great villas of Bohemia, Moravia and Silesia /512

Index of Names /526

Dust jacket:
Josef Gočár,
the 'Red Villa' of Josef Binko 1908–1909,
Krucemburk

Jaroslav Kincl,
Lev Krča,
Stanislav Tobek –
The steel frame
for the villa
of Dr. Železný,
Jimramov 1936

Frontispiece: Antonín Tebich, Villa
of F. L. Chleborad, 1891, Brno