

The European Construction Industry 1990-2006

Introduction	3
The Problem of Exchange Rates and Parities	4
Other Sources of the Database.....	5
The Period under Review	6
European Countries Compared.....	6
Bibliography.....	7
Appendices	8

Government needs to protect the study shows the the construction of the real world of performance and competitiveness, derived from individual practice power parity of construction investment in EURO and Finland from European Commission Programme (ECF). This system makes possible the comparison of the real level of income and productivity of countries, without the influence of differing exchange rates.

Examinations recently initial representatives of the construction industry in the following 19 countries:

27th countries - Germany, France, Italy, Spain, the United Kingdom

8 smaller countries from the north of Europe - Austria, Switzerland, Belgium, the Netherlands, Ireland, Portugal

East Euro countries - Denmark, Finland, Norway, Sweden

4 Central and Eastern European countries - the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, the Slovak Republic