

Contents

| | |
|--|------|
| List of tables | viii |
| Preface | x |
| List of abbreviations | xv |
| Map | xx |
| 1 Conceptual frameworks: 'The Balkans' and the nature of post-Communist democratization and economic transformations | 1 |
| 2 Albania: between a rock and a hard place | 22 |
| 3 Bulgaria: the Devil has all the best tunes | 73 |
| 4 Romania: the road to the EU is paved with good intentions | 125 |
| 5 Croatia: paying a price | 183 |
| 6 Serbia: from Serbdom to pariahdom | 233 |
| 7 Bosnia and Herzegovina: the travails of coexistence | 329 |
| 8 Macedonia: towards a bi-national state? | 405 |
| 9 Montenegro: to be or not to be? | 471 |
| 10 Kosova: the forging of a nation and a state | 512 |
| 11 The post-Communist Balkans, the West and the EU: major challenges and contradictions between rhetoric and reality | 581 |
| Bibliography | 595 |
| Index | 609 |