TABLE OF CONTENTS

foreword by Lorenzo Tomasin 11

introduction 18

The "many histories" of Venice (IM) 23

Ancient history – new books (IM) 24

History and geography (IM) 43

The quest for a sacred past (IM) 61

The "reality of the past" (VR) 63

The "Peace of Venice" as a case study of historiographical elaborations (VR) 67

Corpus and methodology (VR) 68

chapter I Exploring the Birth of a Civic Legend (VR) 72

Civic time and space: moving backward from the Calle to the codex 74

Contextualizing one "version of the story" 78

A monographic approach to historiography in Bonincontro dei Bovi 84

Constructing a historical reality through "material" sources 88

From the Legenda to the chronicle (and back) – between 1300 and 1330 100

chapter II The Epic Shift (VR) 104

Versifying historiography 106

Evidence of the stylistic transformation of the legend 108

Enacting the epic: in search of material proofs 111

chapter III THE PAST VISUALIZED IN THE CORRER MANUSCRIPT (IM) 116
The decoration of the manuscript 118
Critical issues 125
The narrative program 130
From saints to doges: internal coherence 131

chapter IV MICRO AND MACRO: MINIATURES AND MURAL PAINTINGS (IM) 136
The Sala del Maggior Consiglio 139
Reconstruction of the original cycle 147
The Doge's Palace: a triumphal image of Venice 156
Annunciation and Coronation of the Virgin 158
The dogal portraits 159
The "Peace of Venice" 160
In search of tradition 161
Terraferma horizons 162
Illusion of real presence 166
The Annunciation as state propaganda 170
The dogal portraits: history and future 172
Venetian horizons and mainland horizons: the mechanism of appropriation 174

chapter V THE FIRST VERNACULAR VERSIONS OF THE LEGEND (VR) 180
Archivio di Stato di Venezia, Miscellanea codici I, Storia Veneta, 216 182
Interrelations among the Hystoria and the vernacular versions of the legend 183
Linguistic note 190

Editorial principles 195

The legend of the "Peace of Venice" according to the LegPacA version 198

Critical notes 210

Glossary 218

conclusions

Two interwoven threads: the triumphs and historical episode (VR) 223

A dynamic legend: semantic shift and multiple functions (VR) 224

From one horizon to another: political necessities, hegemonic desires, and cultural practices (IM) 225

Internal politics: homologation and pacification (IM) 226

Foreign policy and expansionism: Venice and the mainland (IM) 226

Shaping the present (VR) 228

bibliography 231

index of names 250

index of places 253

copyrights 255