

Table of Contents

Introduction	7
The Telč Jesuit Library Kateřina Bobková-Valentová and Hedvika Kuchařová	11
The Libraries of Capuchin Convents in the Czech Lands during the Baroque Period Marek Brčák and Richard Šípek	36
The Library of the Brno Ursuline Convent Lucie Heilandová	52
From Chained Books to Portable Collections: Franciscan Libraries in Padua during the Fifteenth Century. René Hernández Vera	71
Incunables in the Bishop's Library of the Hradec Králové Bishopric Martin Janda	110
The Historical Value of The Life of St. Sabbas by Monk Domentijan of Serbia. Dragoljub Marjanović	123
Elzka legit et relegit. A Benedictine Nun in Early Fifteenth- Century Prague as a Reader and a Librarian. Karel Pacovský	135
The Library Collection of the Brno Charterhouse in the Rajhrad Monastery Library Jindra Pavelková	159
The Library of the Serbian Orthodox Krupa Monastery in Northern Dalmatia Radovan Pilipović	218

The Incunabula Collection of the Benedictine Monastery in Broumov	229
Krisztina Rábai
The Libraries of Abolished Cloisters in the Context of the Action of Clearing Cloisters in the 1950s: Ideology, Practice, and Consequences	250
Eva Richtrová
Baroque Monastery Libraries: Between Iconography and Function . . .	274
Michaela Šeferisová Loudová
The Publishing Activity of the Restored Convent of the Knights of Malta in Prague until the End of the Eighteenth Century	294
Pavel Trnka
Contributors	317
Translators and Proofreaders	319