

CONTENTS

Preface xi

Acknowledgments xv

Introduction: Religious Studies and the Academic Study of Islam 1

September 11 and the Quest for a Normative Islam 2

The Insider–Outsider Debate 4

Critics Versus Caretakers 6

The “Authenticity Debate” in Islamic Studies 6

Identity Formations 8

Islam and Muslim Identities 9

On Diversity 11

PART I. ORIGINS

1. Setting the Stage: Pre-Islamic Arabia 17

Pre-Islamic Arabia 20

Pre-Islamic Arabian Religions 24

Pre-Islamic Mecca 25

Monotheisms in Arabia 28

Later Muslim Accounts of Islamic Origins 32

Outsider and Skeptical Approaches to Islamic Origins 33

Islamic Origins: A Synthetic Approach 36

VIII CONTENTS

2. The Making of the Last Prophet 41
Sources 43
Muhammad at Mecca 45
Muhammad at Medina 51
Muhammad and the Jews of Medina 53
Muhammad's Wives 54
The Return to Mecca and Death of Muhammad 55
The Making of the Last Prophet 55
Polemical Literature Against Muhammad 59
The Deeds and Sayings of Muhammad: The Genre of Hadith 60
Representing Muhammad 63

3. The Quran: The Base Narrative 67
Overview 68
Traditional Accounts 71
The Critical View 72
The Linguistic Matrix of the Ancient Near East 77
Why Don't Muslims Have an "Old Testament"? 79
Messages and Contents 80
The Inimitability of the Quran 86
The Quran in Muslim Life 88
Tafsir: Commentary on the Quran 88
Ta'wil: Esoteric Interpretation of the Quran 89

PART II. IDENTITY FORMATIONS

4. Islam Beyond the Arabian Peninsula: A Historical Overview 95
The Death of Muhammad and the Seeds of Division 97
The Events at the Portico of the Banu Sa'ida 98
The Four Rashidun 99
Abd al-Malik and the Creation of an Islamic Empire 102
Conversion to Islam in the Medieval Period 105
The Abbasid Caliphate 106
Al-Andalus, or Muslim Spain 108
Independent Emirates 110
The View from the Edge 111
The Ottoman Empire 112
5. Early Sectarianism and the Formation of Shi'ism 115
Wilferd Madelung's The Succession to Muhammad 116
The Events at the Portico of the Banu Sa'ida: A Pro-Shi'i View 117
Shi'at Ali 119
The Events at Karbala 120

	The Ghulat	123
	The Importance of Ja'far al-Sadiq	123
	The Role of the Imam	125
	The Twelfth Imam	127
	Shi'i Dynasties	128
	Twelver Shi'ism	128
	Other Shi'i Denominations	129
	Distinctive Doctrines	130
6.	Legal Developments and the Rise of Sunni Islam	133
	The Origins of Islamic Law: Two Approaches	135
	Understanding the Concept of Law in Islam	136
	"Hadith Folk" and the Emergence of Sunni Islam	137
	The Importance of Muhammad al-Shafi'i	139
	Guardians of the Law: The Rise and Function of the Ulama	141
	Naskh	142
	Sources of Ascertaining the Sharia	143
	The Closing of the Gates of Ijtihad	145
	The Four Madhahib	146
	Shi'i Legal Schools	149
	Al-Azhar: The Center of Sunni Learning Today	149
7.	Sufism	154
	Locating Sufism	155
	The Expansion-Asceticism Theory	158
	Sources of the Ascetic Impulse	160
	Geographic Diversity	160
	Key Terms and Concepts	161
	The Stations of Progression	164
	"Sober" and "Intoxicated" Sufism	167
	Some Key Figures	167
	Institutional Sufism	173
	Conservative Criticism of Sufism	175
	Lived Sufism Today	176
	PART III. BELIEFS AND PRACTICES
8.	Constituting Identities: Beliefs and Schools	183
	The Rise of Muslim Theology (Kalam)	185
	The Status of the Grave Sinner	186
	Free Will and Predestination	188
	Mutazilites and the Doctrine of the Created Quran	188
	Ahmad ibn Hanbal	191

	The Asharites	192
	The Maturidis	193
	Medieval Islamic Philosophy	194
	The Five Doctrines of Islamic Faith	198
9.	The Performance of Muslim Identities	203
	The Mosque	205
	Ritual Action	208
	The Five Pillars	208
	A Sixth Pillar: The Case of Jihad	215
	Ritual Practice in Shi'ism	217
	Muhammad's Birthday	218
	"Popular" Islam	218
	Sufism	219
PART IV. MODERN VARIATIONS
10.	Encounters with Modernity	225
	Definitions of Modernity	227
	Colonialism and Orientalism	228
	Maximalism and Minimalism	229
	The Versatility of Islam in the Modern World: An Overview	230
	Typology of Responses to Modernity	233
11.	Constructing Muslim Women	254
	Modern Attempts to Re-create Women's Lives During the Time of Muhammad	255
	Gender and the Construction of Female Mystics	259
	The Veil: A Contested Symbol	260
	Traditional Patterns	263
	Fundamentalist Constructions	265
	Western Feminism and Islam	266
	Contemporary Islamic Feminism	267
12.	Islam Post-September 11	274
	Militant Voices: The Case of al-Qaeda	276
	Interpreting the Events of September 11	279
	Islamophobia	284
	Muslim Apologetics: The Need to Define a Liberal Islam	289
	The Future	292
	Glossary	297
	Index	301