

Contents

Acknowledgements	9
Introduction	11
Henry of Langenstein's Critical Judgment	12
Charles IV, the Schism, and Historians	15
Sources, Perspectives, Structures	26
1. The Story of a Divided Papacy	37
The Gold of Rome and the Fleshpots of Avignon	37
The Castel Sant'Angelo and Papal Liveries	58
The Hunt for the Truth about the Election and Revolt Between the Pope's Tyranny and the Cardinals' Vanity	69
From the Church Council to the Second Election	76
The Queen's Two Bodies and the Sign of the Cross	93
2. An Imperial Diadem for the Young King	102
The Royal Election and Papal Approbation as a Bone of Contention	119
The Romzug , the War of the Eight Saints, and the Signs of the Stars	120
The Shared Emperorhip and the Riddle of the Parisian Summit	137
3. Dynastic Interests in a Labyrinth of Ambition and Intrigue	147
The Postponement of Wenceslas's Approbation in Rome	169
Urban's Envoys in Prague	170
The Promulgation of the Approbation in Tivoli	187

4. Charles IV and the Great Schism	211
Anatomy of German Policy	212
The Happy Hour of the Roman Campaign	230
Multilateral Diplomacy	235
Lights and Shadows of Agitation	249
The Power of Spiritual Knowledge	268
Conclusion	281
Editorial Appendix	289
Bibliography	311
Index	337