

Brief Contents

Part One	Introduction to Integrated Marketing Communications
	1 An Introduction to Integrated Marketing Communications 2
	2 The Role of IMC in the Marketing Process 42
Part Two	Integrated Marketing Communications Program Situation Analysis
	3 Organizing for Advertising and Promotion: The Role of Ad Agencies and Other Marketing Communication Organizations 70
	4 Perspectives on Consumer Behavior 110
Part Three	Analyzing the Communication Process
	5 The Communication Process 142
	6 Source, Message, and Channel Factors 178
Part Four	Objectives and Budgeting for Integrated Marketing Communications Programs
	7 Establishing Objectives and Budgeting for the Promotional Program 216
Part Five	Developing the Integrated Marketing Communications Program
	8 Creative Strategy: Planning and Development 256
	9 Creative Strategy: Implementation and Evaluation 288
	10 Media Planning and Strategy 324
	11 Evaluation of Media: Television and Radio 362
	12 Evaluation of Media: Magazines and Newspapers 404
	13 Support Media 442
	14 Direct Marketing 468
	15 The Internet: Digital and Social Media 486
	16 Sales Promotion 522
	17 Public Relations, Publicity, and Corporate Advertising 568
Part Six	Monitoring, Evaluation, and Control
	18 Measuring the Effectiveness of the Promotional Program 602
Part Seven	Special Topics and Perspectives
	19 International Advertising and Promotion 640
	20 Regulation of Advertising and Promotion 680
	21 Evaluating the Social, Ethical, and Economic Aspects of Advertising and Promotion 728
	22 Personal Selling (Online Only)
	Glossary of Advertising and Promotion Terms G-1
	Endnotes E-1
	Name and Company Index N-1
	Subject Index S-1