

CONTENTS

LIST OF FIGURES	vii
LIST OF TABLES	viii
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	ix
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	xiii
Introduction Matilda Carter	1
Part 1 Understanding care ethics
1 Care ethics and Chinese philosophy Michael Slote	9
2 Reconceptualizing care: mature care and asymmetric relationships Tove Pettersen	17
3 Dependency as a core concept for care ethics: a chronology (and a plea) Simon van der Weele	41
4 A metaethics of care? Revisiting the normative authority of care ethics Mercer E. Gary	61
5 Care ethics and phenomenology Carlo Leget	81
6 Necessary care, moral practices and the cultivation of competent carers Matilda Carter	97
7 Freedom to care, for women of colour Asha Leena Bhandary	113
8 Political perspectives on care: what can we learn from Nancy Fraser? Christine Noël Lemaitre	133
9 Care, justice and equality Costanza Porro	141
10 Care ethics and structural injustice Stephanie Collins	157

11	Normative questions, empirical burdens and global justice: perspectives from care ethics Fiona Robinson	179
12	The ethics of care as a transformation in moral philosophy Sandra Laugier	195
Part 2 Applying care ethics
13	The importance of enduring and living complex care-ethical inquiry: a plea for intimacy and reciprocity in collaborative care-ethical research Alistair Niemeijer and Gustaaf Bos	215
14	Inquiring into materialized care: hospital beds as living landscapes of care Merel Visse and Alistair Niemeijer	231
15	Care ethics and care policies in South Korea Hee-Kang Kim	251
16	Notes from a care network: lessons from the pandemic Sunita George and Raymond Greene	267
17	Queer care and pleasure activism Amy McKiernan	281
18	Imagining care ethics: disability, violence and caring spaces – Trudy’s mothering story Chrissie Rogers	299
19	Care in unexpected places: punishment and forensic detention Helen Brown Coverdale	317
20	Care ethics and public administration: an overview of the field and a look forward Petr Urban	335
21	Care ethics, maternity and reproductive justice Inge van Nistelrooij and Rodante van der Waal	355
22	Care ethics and conflicts in needs: balancing disabled and feminist perspectives and experiences in personalized social care services Kirstein Rummery	377
23	Cultivating moral epiphanies through care Maurice Hamington	395
24	Feminist care ethics and temporality Sophie Bourgault	409
	INDEX	428