Contents

List of Illustrations xiii
List of Abbreviations xv
Notes on Contributors xvii

Introduction: Philosophy of Rhythm 1
Peter Cheyne, Andy Hamilton, and Max Paddison

PART I. MOVEMENT AND STASIS

1. Dialogue on Rhythm: Entrainment and the Dynamic Thesis 15
Andy Hamilton, David Macarthur, Roger Squires, Matthew Tugby, and Rachael Wiseman (compiled and edited by Andy Hamilton)

2. Rhythm and Movement 43
Matthew Nudds

3. The Ontology of Rhythm 62
Peter Simons

4. "Feeling the Beat": Multimodal Perception and the Experience of Musical Movement 76
Jenny Judge

5. Dance Rhythm 91
Aili Bresnahan

PART II. EMOTION AND EXPRESSION

6. The Life of Rhythm: Dewey, Relational Perception, and the "Cumulative Effect" 101
Garry L. Hagberg

7. Rhythm, Preceding Its Abstraction 110
Deniz Peters

8. Mozart's "Dissonance" and the Dialectic of Language and Thought in Classical Theories of Rhythm 125
Michael Spitzer

9. Rhythm and Popular Music 141
Alison Stone

10. Rhythms, Resemblance, and Musical Expressiveness 156
Ted Gracyk

PART III. ENTRAINMENT AND THE SOCIAL DIMENSION

11. Metric Entrainment and the Problem(s) of Perception 171
Justin London

12. Entrainment and the Social Origin of Musical Rhythm 183
Martin Clayton

13. How Many Kinds of Rhythm Are There? 199
Michael Tenzer

14. Temporal Processing and the Experience of Rhythm: A Neuro-Psychological Approach 216
Udo Will

PART IV. TIME AND EXPERIENCE: SUBJECTIVE AND OBJECTIVE RHYTHM

15. Complexity and Passage: Experimenting with Poetic Rhythm 233
Christopher Hasty

16. Encoded and Embodied Rhythm: An Unprioritized Ontology 255
Peter Cheyne

17. Time, Rhythm, and Subjectivity: The Aesthetics of Duration 272
Max Paddison

18. Husserl's Model of Time-Consciousness, and the Phenomenology of Rhythm 291
Salomé Jacob

19. Pictorial Experience and the Perception of Rhythm 307
Jason Gaiger

20. Soundless Rhythm 331
Víctor Durà-Vilà

PART V. READING RHYTHM

21. Rhythm, Meter, and the Poetics of Abstraction 349
Jason David Hall

22. The Not-So-Silent Reading: What Does It Mean to Say that We Appreciate Rhythm in Literature? 362
Rebecca Wallbank

23. Leaving It Out: Rhythm and Short Form in the Modernist Poetic Tradition 374
Will Montgomery

24. Hearing It Right: Rhythm and Reading 392
John Holliday

Index 409