

Contents

List of figures

List of tables

Acknowledgements

List of abbreviations

Glossary of terms

1 Researching human trafficking in a local context: research design, challenges, and aims

1.1 Introduction

1.2 Defining and measuring human trafficking

1.3 Human trafficking and the Philippines

1.4 Research design and research aim

1.5 Ethnography and fieldwork in Mindanao

1.6 Suroy-suroy: to roam around; to wander; to run errands

1.7 Gatekeepers

[1.8 Matarong pamatasan \[ethics\], pain, and writing](#)

1.9 Interviews

1.10 Analysis and personal narratives

1.11 Conceptual framework

1.12 Overview of the book

1.13 Conclusions

2 Rural Mindanao: history, conflict, and underage soldiers

2.1 Introduction

2.2 Rural history and poverty

2.3 Definitions of poverty

2.4 History of conflict in Mindanao

2.5 Definitions of children and child

2.6 Marcus' story

2.7 Jun's story

2.8 Trauma, force, and agency in global comparison

2.9 Coercion and agency

2.10 Soldiers, rural poverty and structural violence

2.11 Conclusions

3 Labour and exploitation: employment and work in Mindanao

3.1 Introduction

3.2 Part 1: employment, economics, law, and structural violence

3.3 DonDon's story

3.4 Gabriel's story

3.5 Melissa's story

3.6 Structural violence, labour, and human trafficking

3.7 Part 2: sexual labour and sexual traffic: women in Mindanao seeking work

3.8 Erica's story

3.9 Crystal's story

3.10 Joramae's story

3.11 Choice, coercion, agency

3.12 Structural violence, labour, and gender

3.13 Conclusions

4 Migration and globalisation: migrant experience and multiple violences

4.1 Introduction

4.2 Migration in the Philippines: state control and social norms

4.3 Bianca's story

4.4 Jasmine's story

4.5 Coercion, consent, control, and agency: trafficking of migrants in context

4.6 Social pressures and the culture of migration

4.7 Global pressures and local lives: history, stories, and migration

4.8 History and colonial legacy: structural and symbolic violences

4.9 Conclusions

5 Risk and violence: producing and reproducing vulnerability

5.1 Introduction

5.2 Susan's story

5.3 Risk and compounding violence

5.4 Mariel's story

5.5 Navigating violence: choices and structure

5.6 Conclusions

6 Agency, sacrifice, and human trafficking in Mindanao: conclusions

6.1 Agency and meaning

6.2 Agency, sacrifice, and suffering

6.3 Sacrifice and symbolic violence

6.4 Summary

6.5 Implications