

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	ix
List of Contributors	x
Acknowledgements	xvi
Introduction: Why Taylor? On Taylor Swift as the Anti-Hero We Need Hannah McCann, Eloise Faichney, Rebecca Trelease, and Emma Whatman	1
PART I
Swifties: The Politics and Productivity of Fandom	9
1 Taylor-Made Learning: Fan Labour, Skill Development, and Celebrity Interaction in the Taylor Swift Affinity Space Kate Pattison	11
2 Building Less Toxic Fandoms: Lessons from Online Community Architecture and Management Jennifer Beckett	23
3 “Taylor Was Here”: Swifties in Sports Fandom and Diverse Fans Reclaiming Space in the Stands Kasey Symons	34

- 4 Filipino Swifties and Pop Culture Activism in the
New Marcos Era 45
Joy Sales

PART II

Reading Swift: Gender, Femininity, Feminism 57

- 5 The Power of the Intimate: Autoethnographic Reflections
on Intimate Connections with Taylor Swift 59
Samantha Owen, Madeleine Dobson, Elizabeth Baca, Lilly Heseltine, and Alys Owen
- 6 “Miss Americana” and South Korea’s “Little Sister”:
The Gendered Familial/National Celebrities of Taylor Swift and IU 71
Jiyoung Lee
- 7 Taylor Swift’s Tortured (Internet) Poetry: Millennial
Life Writing, Internet Culture, and Feminist Autotheory 83
Eloise Faichney
- 8 Snakes and Stones Can Break Bones: Taylor Swift,
Online Violence, and the Law 96
Cassandra Mudgway
- 9 Taylor Swift and the Limits of Neoliberal Postfeminist
Friendship 107
Emma Whatman

PART III

Swift Dispossession: Questions of Whiteness and Colonialism 119

- 10 Taylor Swift’s Influence on Southeast Asian Swifties’
Socio-political Activism 121
Aimee-Sophia Lim

11	Cultural (Re)Colonisation in Asia through the Lens of Taylor Swift Huynh Tan Gia Bao and Stephanie Bucci	134
12	Taylor Swift, White Possession, and Colonial Discourse in Popular Music Holly Randell-Moon	146
PART IV
	Queering Swift: Queer Readings vs Lavender Capitalism	159
13	Monsters and Mad Women: A Queer Gothic Reading of Taylor Swift Duc Dau and Hannah McCann	161
14	Absent Analysis, Heteronormative Biopolitics, and “Lavender (Haze) Capitalism” in Swiftian Lore Leah Madelaine Schmidt, Natalie Abbott, Laura Carman McClintock, and Lauren Modra	172
15	Taylor (Sheesh)’s Version: Recreating and Co-creating Taylor Swift through Filipino Drag and Fandom Participation Allison Anne G. Atis, Noel Sajid I. Murad, Christine Anne R. Cox, and Serena M. Vaswani	184
PART V
	Swift as “Event”: Music, Cities, Communities	197
16	She Had This Big, Wide City All to Herself: Taylor Swift and Non-economic Legacies in a Time of Music Sector Crisis in Melbourne Olivia Hally, Anna Kosovac, and Philippa Chandler	199
17	What Taylor Swift’s Eras Tour Can Teach Us about Cyberattacks Andrew Reeves, Nadia Scott, Agata McCormac, and Debi Ashenden	210

- 18 Is Taylor Swift a NUMTOT?: Lyrical Representations of Public Transport and the Car 221
Harrison Croft
- 19 The Taylor Swift Paradox: A New Form of
Blockbuster Artist Redefining the Indie 234
Miriam Boulos and Alexandre Perrin
- Index* 247