

Contents

Vlad Popovici, Alice Velková, and Martin Klečacký

Social Mobility of Elites in East-Central Europe in Historical Perspective.

Introductory Study — 1

Franz Adlgasser

Old and New Parliamentary Elites: Education, Professional, and Social Profiles of the Members of the Austrian Parliament, 1867–1918 — 29

Igor Vranić and Leo Marić

Metamorphosis of Parliamentarian Elites in Croatia, 1910–1925 — 53

Ana Victoria Sima and Marius Eppel

Social Origin, Denominational, and Family Networks Among the Romanian Political Elite in Transylvania. Case Study: Greek-Catholic and Orthodox Politicians (1861–1918) — 77

Martin Klečacký, Klára Hulíková Tesárková, and Alice Velková

Senior State Officials – a Uniform Administrative Elite? The Example of Prague Crown Land Offices and Their Highest-Ranking Public Servants, 1868–1918 — 99

Katya Vladimirov

The Bureaucracy of Russian Poland, 1870–1905: A Profile of the Elite — 125

Judit Pál

An Immobile Society? The Political Role of the Hungarian Aristocracy in the Dualist Era – the Example of Transylvania — 149

Peter Urbanitsch

The Professors of the Philosophical Faculty at the University of Vienna From 1849 to 1914 — 175

Vlad Popovici

Members of the Romanian Academy From Transylvania and Hungary (1866–1948). A Case Study on the Social Mobility of the Intellectual Elite — 217