

Contents

Introduction

Nadiya Kiss and Monika Wingender 7

Section I: Influence of the War on Language Use and Attitudes

Language Behavior of Ukrainians Against the Background of the Full-Scale War: Trends of Change

Svitlana Sokolova 15

Language and War: Language-Related Discourse in Ukraine Since the Beginning of the Full-Scale Invasion

Olena Ruda 37

“Russia Must Be Opposed on All Fronts”: How the Full-Scale War Has Changed Language Situation in the Ukrainian Business Environment

Liudmyla Pidkuimukha 69

Totalitarian Echoes: Mapping the Influence on Ukrainian Language Textbooks

Anastasiia Onatii 91

Changes in Language and National Consciousness of Ukrainians in the Period of Russia’s Full-Scale War in Ukraine

Natalija Matvejeva 119

Moral Values of the Ukrainian-Speaking and Russian-Speaking Students in Bilingual Settings

Taras Tkachuk 141

Section II: Indigenous People, National Minorities and Regional Perspectives

Crimean Tatars in the Context of War, Displacement and Forced Migration: Language Policy and Behavior Nadiya Kiss and Ivanna Car	165
Ethnolinguistic Demarcation of Public Space in the Linguistic Landscape of Transcarpathia, Ukraine Bohdan Azhniuk	201
Language Situation of National Minorities in Transcarpathia: Socio-Communicative Elements of Design and Linguistic Landscape Lesia Hychko	245
Autobiographical Narrative of Linguistic Personality Formation in a Multilingual Border Region: Documentation Based on In-Depth Interviews Halyna Shumytska	273
Media Discussions on the Functioning of Minority Languages in Transcarpathia Vasyl Sharkan	299
Language Adaptation of Ethnic Russians in the West of Ukraine Ivanna Car	325
From the Observations of Dynamics of Language Situation in the Multilingual Area Between the Dniester and the Danube Rivers Andriy Kolesnykov and Maryna Delyusto	347
Perception of the Ukrainian Language Amongst National Minority Representatives in Chernihiv Svitlana Nemyrovska	385