

Contents

List of Figures and Tables

Introduction—Organization Design in Need of a New Paradigm

- 1. From the Design of Structures to the Designing of Organizations: Past Trends and Future Directions
- 2. A Design-Driven Epistemology for Organization Design: Design-as-Meaning and Design-as-Practice
- 3. The Ontological Bases: Intended, Emergent, and Perceived Organizational Knowledge-qua-Design
- 4. Bridging between Organization Design as a Noun and as a Verb: Formative Affectual Contexts and Design Trace
- 5. Deriving Five Human-Centred Logics of Organization Design
- 6. The Logic of Identity and the Normative Logic
- 7. The Service Logic and the Logic of Effectual Reasoning
- 8. The Logic of Interactive Structure
- 9. Leaderful Organization Design: Moving Organizations Closer to a Human-Centric Paradigm

Conclusion—A New (Design) Discourse for Organization Design

References

Index