

Contents

List of Illustrations

Preface

PART I

Introduction

1 Introduction

2 Fairness in Traditional Transportation Planning

PART II

Philosophical Explorations

3 Setting the Stage

4 The Social Meaning of Transportation

5 Accessibility as a Primary Good?

6 Insuring for Lack of Accessibility

7 Defining Sufficient Accessibility

PART III

A New Approach to Transportation Planning

8 Transportation Planning Based on Principles of Justice

9 Case Study: The Fairness of Amsterdam's Transportation System

10 Seeking Transportation Justice

Index