

001 (NKF)

3742435

Content]

- 1 Introduction 5
 - The UN Declaration of the Right-to-Food 5
 - Right-to-Food Principles in View of Disasters 6
 - Background Situation of Small-Scale Farmers in Samar 6
 - Profile of the Rice Industry in Eastern Visayas 6
 - Characteristics of Small-Scale Farmers of Samar 10
 - The Small-Scale Farmers of Basey 10
 - The Small-Scale Farmers of Marabut 13
- 2 Impact Assessment using the Right-to-Food Approach 16
 - Questions asked 16
 - Methodology used 16
 - Description and Analysis of Agricultural Enterprise Development within the Context of Pro-poor Growth 16
 - Value Chain Systems Analysis 18
 - Structural Characteristics of Value Chains 18
 - Structure of a Value Chain 18
 - Value Chain Approach to Development 19
 - Value Chain Governance 20
 - Data Sampling and Gathering Procedure for Value Chain Studies 20
 - Data Analysis 22
- 3 Discussion of Research Results 23
 - Rice-based Agroecosystem 23
 - Cropping Patterns and Agricultural Practices 23
 - Species Composition, Distribution and Diversity 27
 - Vegetable-based Agroecosystem 34
 - Cropping Patterns and Agricultural Practices 34
 - Species Composition, Distribution and Diversity in Vegetable-based Agroecosystem 36
 - Changes in Agriculture Value Chains Encountered by Small-Scale Farmers 39
 - Changes in Vegetable Value Chains 45
 - Implications of Changes in the Value Chains on Small-Scale Farmers 49
 - Problems and Issues Encountered by the Farmers 50
- 4 Conclusions and Recommendations 54
 - Strategies to Strengthen the Right-to-Food of Small-Scale Farmers 55
- 5 Literature 57

592

K6/102 310