

CONTENTS

Foreword	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
1 Introduction	1
2 A Positional Exploration of My Family History	14
3 Roma People: Who Can We Become?	27
4 An Examination of Roma People's Structural Oppression (Ofitsialo Telchudipen)	52
5 Geneses of Anti-Roma Racism	71
6 Placing the Origins of Anti-Roma Racism in the Global Scholarship on Racisms and Systems of Caste	97
7 Telaveriaripen (Racialization) and Gadjoness	112
8 Telaveriaripen : Patterns in the Racialization of Roma People	131

x Contents

9	Absolute Racialization: Kin Racializing and Dehumanizing Processes	165
10	Organized Killings as Law	188
11	Bodily Violence	209
12	Organized Erasure of Roma History and Culture	238
13	Dur-rigate-dinipe – Apartness	262
14	Gadjikane Politics and Policymaking	298
15	Epilogue: Letter to My Nephew on the Menace of Gadjoness	329
	Postscript	340
	Index	347