

Contents

Impact of EU Regulations on Labour and Social Law of Central and Eastern European Countries
EU-Enlargement 2004: The Founding and the Accession Member States' View on EU Social Law	3
Eberhard Eichenhofer and Kristina Koldinská
The Transformative Journey of CEE Countries to the EU	25
Cristina Mihes
Non-discrimination and Equal Treatment
The Principle of Non-Discrimination in the Workplace: Judgments of the Court of Justice in Polish Cases	37
Dagmara Skupień
The Evolution of Polish Antidiscrimination Laws in the Workplace: A Labour Law Perspective in the Context of European Union ('EU') Regulations	55
Marcin Wujczyk
Maternity and Parental Leave Management as a Tool for Work-Life Balance	81
Lucie Matějka Řehořová
The Work-Life Balance in EU Law and the Quest for Substantive Gender Equality in Reconciling Work with Family Responsibilities	93
Aleksandar Ristovski
Social Rights of the Elderly: Analysis from the Viewpoint of EU Social Policy, the Market and the Hungarian Law	121
Henriett Rab and Márton Leó Zaccaria

Separate and Unequal: Persistent Segregation of Roma Children in Czech Republic and Eastern Europe	137
Jakub Tomšej
Specific Challenges for Social Protection
Cross-Border Healthcare Law Development: Connecting Points Between Slovenian and EU Law	155
Grega Strban
Legal Regime of the Social Security Certificate from the Perspective of the CJEU Case Law	171
Martin Štefko
The Digital Europe Programme and Its Impact on the Hungarian Health Care System, with Special Regard to the EESZT	191
József Hajdú
Social Europe, Free Movement and the Phenomenon of Reverse Social Dumping	209
Luka Mišič
Long-Term Care: Not a Nightmare in the EU?	223
Kristina Koldinská
Social Rights of Temporary Protected Persons in the EU: Current Challenges and Further Perspectives	245
Alla Fedorova
Employment of Persons with Disabilities: How Far Is Ukraine from European Equality Standards?	271
Olena Rym and Yana Simutina
Labour Law
Lost in Space: CEE Countries Workforce and 20 Years of Enlargement	303
Mario Vinković and Tena Konjević
The Challenges of the Implementation of EU Labour Law in CEE-Countries, with Specific Regard to Enforcement: The Case of Hungary	329
Attila Kun
Balancing Legislation and Moral Capitalism: Enhancing Employee Access to Decision-Making	355
Dana Volosevici

From Decentralizing to Promoting Collective Bargaining: The Development of Industrial Relations in Poland	377
Błażej Mądrzycki and Łukasz Pisarczyk
Selected Issues Challenging the National Legislators in Light of EP and Council Directive (EU) 2023/970	395
Paulina Matyjas-Łysakowska
Concluding Remarks and Prospects: What Next in Social Law in the EU?	405
Kristina Koldinská	