

Contents

Introduction: The Russian War of Aggression Against Ukraine: Not a War of Religion, but a Religious War Richard Ottinger	7
The Church Dispute in Ukraine and the State's Religious Policy: Are Concerns Over Religious Freedom Justified? Johannes Oeldemann	13
War Propaganda and 'Russki Mir': The Russian Orthodox Church as an Emissary for Imperial Ambitions? Andreas Heinemann-Grüder	23
The Russian Invasion and World Orthodoxy: A Geopolitical Schism? Thomas Bremer	31
Jewish Life in Russia and Ukraine: A Paradigm Shift Since the Invasion? Pinchas Goldschmidt	39
Papal Diplomacy for Ukraine: Naïve Pacifism or Strategic Neutrality? Ludwig Ring-Eifel	45
Ukrainian Churches and Religious Communities in the Invasion: Overlooked Contributions? Vladyslav Zaiets	55
Ukrainian Free Churches after the Invasion: The Power of National Reinvention? Joshua T. Searle and Oleksandr Geychenko	65
Islam and Muslims in the Russian War of Aggression: Jihad Against Ukraine? Andreas Jacobs	77

Military Chaplaincy on the Front Line: Theological Practice in the Horror of War?

Regina Elsner 87

'Just War' and 'Emergency Aid': Obsolete or Key Categories for the War in Ukraine?

Franz-Josef Bormann..... 97

On the Contributors 107