

CONTENTS

PART I: THE PAST

CHAPTER	PAGE
PROLOGUE TO PART I	17
I. THE UNFREE	23
Slavery : Origins—Greek, Hebrew, Roman : The Roman Slave : The Slave a Thing : The Power of the Master : Collegia : The Slave's Disabilities : The Slave a Power : The Slave in Commerce : The Decline of the Roman Empire : The Serf : The Feudal System : The Manor : The Status of the Serf : The Condition of the Serfs : Decline of Serfdom : Serfdom by Birth : Labour of Serfs : The Rights of the Lord.
II. EMANCIPATION	44
Trade and Industry in the Early Medieval Period : The New Era : The Manorial Lords : Enfranchisements : The Rise of the Towns : Localization of Trade : Town Charters : Displacement of Population : The Black Death : Statute of Labourers : Peasants' Rebellion : Strength of the Free Towns : Extinction of Serfdom : Reaction : Colonial Slavery : American Slavery.
III. THE GILDS	66
Origins : England, France, and Italy : Guild and Trade Union : The Beverley Guild : The Craft Guild : Guild Regulation : Early Combinations : Friendly Societies : The Guild Control of Labour : Importance of the Guilds : Confiscation.
IV. THE MASTER WORKER	82
The Apprentice : Deeds of Apprenticeship : State Interference : The Journeyman : The Hiring : Hours and Wages : Combinations : State Regulation of

HISTORY OF LABOUR

CHAPTER

PAGE

Wages : The Justices : Maximum Wages : Regulation of Hours of Labour : Migration : The Master : Trade Localities : Tudor Legislation : Act against Combinations : Quarterly Contracts : Beginnings of a Factory System : The Statute of Artificers or Apprentices : Hours of Labour : Wages : Apprentices.

V. POVERTY

111

The Pauper : Early Agrarian Changes : The Manor : Enclosure : Kett's Rebellion : Depreciation of the Currency : Minor Causes of Poverty : The Unemployed : The Vagabond and Sturdy Beggar : The Destitute : The Poor Law : The Elizabethan Poor Law : Settlements : Administrative Abuses : Pauperization : The Allowance System : The Workhouse.

VI. A MEDIEVAL PERIOD

134

Material Resources : Population : The State of Agriculture : The Poor : The Worker and the Land : Food : Clothing : Houses : Wages : Learning : The Spirit of the Poor : Development of Resources : Games : France : Colbertism : The Workshop.

VII. EDUCATION

153

Brito-Roman Schools : The Medieval System : The Guild Schools : Church Control : The Lollards : The Reformation : Elizabethan Reforms : Poor Law Schools : The Commonwealth : Early American Efforts : France : Sixteenth-century Demands : Persecution of Heretics and the Ordinance of Louis XIV : The Voluntary Effort in France : Institut des Frères des Écoles Chrésiennes : The Restoration in England : The Charity Schools : The Voluntary Effort in England : Early Efforts : The Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge : The Opening Years of the Nineteenth Century : State of Education in Europe : Brougham and the Voluntary System.

VIII. THE AGRARIAN REVOLUTION

175

The Earlier Enclosure Movement : Nature of Later Enclosure Movement : Motives : Advantages Gained : Evils Suffered : Parliament : Private

CONTENTS

CHAPTER

PAGE

- Bill Legislation : Opposition Ineffective : The Commissioners : Compensation : Injustices : Resulting Evils : A Household Budget : Remedial Proposals : Proposals not Accepted : Distress : General Results.
- IX. THE INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION 195
- England's Century : Meaning of the Industrial Revolution : The Standard of Life : Change of Status : Growth of Population : The Slum : Displacement of Population : Industrial Areas : Change : Machine Competition : The Landless Worker : Material Gains : Spiritual Losses : The Workhouse Child : Child Labour : Hours of Labour : Distress : The Factory : Attitude of the Unreformed Parliament : The Feudal Spirit : The Lords and the Chimney-sweeps.
- X. THE RISE OF TRADE UNIONISM 217
- Difference between the Trade Union and the Guild : The Standard of Life : Individual Bargaining : The Skilled and Unskilled Trades : Appeal by Petition : Absence of Stable Combinations : Useless Proposals : Laissez-faire : Attempts to enforce the Old Laws : Early Unions : Combination Laws : Aims of the Early Trade Unionists : France : America : Francis Place : The Repeal of the Combination Laws : The Law of Conspiracy : German Trade Unions : The Need for Unity : The Twentieth Century : Decentralization : Direct Action.
- PART II : THE PRESENT
- PROLOGUE TO PART II 247
- XI. REFORM 252
- The Unreformed Parliament : Corruption : Ignorance : Forms of Franchise : Property, not Persons, Represented : Early Reformers : The Economic Reformers : Radical Reform—First Stage : Pitt's Reform Bill : Radical Reform—Second Stage : Pitt's Repressive Measures : Radical Reform—Third and Final Stage :

HISTORY OF LABOUR

CHAPTER

PAGE

The Need for Reform : Catholic Emancipation :
The Moulding of Public Opinion : The Events of 1830 : Wellington's Speech : Lord Grey : Introduction of the Bill : Dissolution of Parliament :
The New Reform Parliament : The Lords : The Fall of Grey : Grey's Return to Power : The Passing of the Bill : Results of Reform : Extension of the Franchise : Subsequent History of the Reform Movement.

XII. THE FACTORY

285

State Regulation : Child Labour : The First Factory
Act : Wrongs and the Public Conscience : The Industrial Reformers : The Act of 1819 : The Act of 1833 : The Ten-hour Agitation : Conditions of Work : Factories and Mines : Cheap Labour :
Ashley's Act : Apprentices and the Butty System :
Regulation of the Mining Industry : Female Labour :
Meaning of 'Factory' : Later Factory Acts : State
Interference : The Relay System : The Act of 1850 :
The Act of 1874 : French Legislation : The French
Factory Act of 1874 : Switzerland and Belgium :
United States : The Provisions of the Peace Treaty.

XIII. THE HOME

325

General Conditions : The Slums of London : Sanitary Conditions : The Earl of Shaftesbury : The State of the Metropolis : The Water Supply : Transport :
Pigs or Sties : Distress and Laissez-faire : The
First Reformers : Early Measures : The Torrens and Cross Acts : Working of the Earlier Acts :
Private Activity : The Proposals of 1885 : The Act of 1890 : Town-planning : Continental
Schemes : The Act of 1909 : The Garden City
Movement : Present Conditions.

XIV. THE MENTAL HORIZON

348

General Condition of Europe : Prussia : France :
England : Roebuck's Speech : The State grants
Aid : Voluntary Activity : Brougham's Proposals :
The Voluntary Effort—Results : Condition of Factory Schools : Newcastle Commission Reports :
The Act of 1870 : The Modern Phase.

CONTENTS

CHAPTER	PAGE
XV. THE ATTACK UPON POVERTY	367
The Old Order : Poor Law Reform : The New System : The German Accident Law : The English System : Workmen's Compensation : Social Gains : Health Insurance : The Minimum Wage : Old Age Pensions.
XVI. TENDENCIES	385
The Trend of Opinion : Definitions of Nationalization : Efficiency the Test : Efficiency of State Control : Experiences in other Countries : Collateral Ad- vantages : Workers' Control : The Need for Efficiency : The End and the Means : Revolution or Evolution : Modern Democracy : Class An- tagonism : The Hope for the Future.
A LIST OF SELECTED BOOKS	403
INDEX	409