

Contents

- Note on Transliteration, Translations, Dates, and Terminology | vii
- Acknowledgments | xi
- Abbreviations | xiii
- Maps | xiv
- Introduction | 3
- 1 Ruthenian-Ukrainian Political Culture in the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth (1569–1640s) | 17
- 2 Establishing Goals, Political Concepts, and Values: The Khmel'nyts'kyi Uprising and the Hetmanate (1648–68) | 41
- 3 Uniting the Fatherland: Hetman Petro Doroshenko (1665–75) | 74
- 4 The Left-Bank Hetmanate: Hetman Ivan Samoilovych (1672–87) | 102
- 5 The Construction of Historical-Political Narratives (1660–80s) | 146
- 6 In Service to Tsar and Ukraine: Hetman Ivan Mazepa | 212
- 7 Mazepa: Modernizer and Enlightened Ruler (1687–1708) | 250
- 8 Mazepa: Hetman of a Sacred Rutheno-Russian Realm | 286
- 9 From Tsarist Service to Swedish Protection (1705–09) | 332
- 10 From Reprisals to Ideological Combat: Peter vs Mazepa | 360
- 11 Liberating Ukraine: Hetman Pylyp Orlyk (1709–14) | 391
- 12 Rethinking Ukraine: Envisioning a Free Cossack Commonwealth | 428
- Conclusions | 455
- Epilogue | 467
- Notes | 479
- Bibliography | 553
- Index | 597