

Contents

List of Figures IX

Volume 1

- 1 Introduction 1
  - 1 Historiographical Context, Question, and Outline 1
  - 2 State of Research 14
  - 3 Sources 31
- 2 Holy Teachers, Rulers, and Capitals – Religious Memory-Figures up to the 18th Century 33
  - 1 “Educators and Teachers of the Slavs” Constantine-Cyril and Methodius 36
  - 2 Scholars, Patron Saints, and Miracle Workers – Clement of Ohrid and Naum 54
  - 3 Saints as Pillars of Bulgarian Rule in the New City of the Tsars 66
  - 4 Excursus: Ioakim, Gavriil, and Prohor – Slavic-Byzantine Saints between Bulgarian and Serbian Dominion 89
  - 5 Holy Rulers of Rascia or Serbia 91
  - 6 “Pro patria mori” – The Battle of the Field of Blackbirds, Lazar, and St. Vitus’s Day 140
  - 7 Serbian and Bulgarian Holy Princes of the Church 150
  - 8 Holy Branković Despots – The Continued Invention of the Holy Dynasty in Hungary 151
  - 9 Review – Religious Memory-Figures up to the 18th Century as Media of Homogeneous “National Denominational Cultures”? 155
- 3 The Invention of European, Christian Nations to Overcome the “Asian Yoke” in the Long 19th Century 160
  - 1 Clergy as National Saints: Sava’s Ascent to “Savior” and “New Creator” 168
  - 2 Clergy as National Saints: Ivan as “the Only All-National Saint” and His Monastery of Rila 226
  - 3 Clergy as National Saints: The Rediscovery of Cyril and Methodius as “Geniuses” between Transnational Pan-Slavism and Nationalism 246

- 4 Clergymen as National Saints: From Archbishop and "Ohridian Babalük" to "Savior of Slavdom" and "Smith of the Bulgarian Nationality" – Clement in Ohrid and Bulgaria 367
- 5 The Controversial National Myth – the Battle of the Blackbird Field and St. Vitus's Day as National Myth Nexus 401
- 6 Holy Serbian Rulers – Stefan the First-Crowned and the Other Nemanjids in Sava's Shadow 422
- 7 Holy Bulgarian Rulers – Boris as "Creator of the Bulgarian Nationality" 439
- 8 The "Bulgarian God," the Serbian "Holy Land," as Well as Monasteries and Regions – Spatial Designs through Religious-National Memory 463
- 9 Interim Assessment 479

Volume 2

- 4 Mobilization and Sacralization of the Nation through Religious Remembrance (1918–1944) 487
  - 1 From Myth to "Ideology" – the Field of Blackbirds and Vidovdan in the SHS State 490
  - 2 Clergy as National Saints: The Discursive and Geographical Expansion of Sava's Cult in the "Battle of Ideologies" 534
  - 3 Cleric as National Saint: Clement between Serbia, Macedonia, and Bulgaria 597
  - 4 Clerics as National Saints: Cyril and Methodius 637
  - 5 John of Rila's Holiday as the "Day of the National Awakeners" 737
  - 6 Clergymen as National Saints: The "Holy Leader" Ivan of Rila and His Monastery 755
  - 7 Holy Ruler – Boris as the "God-Sent Leader" 771
  - 8 Holy Rulers – the Karađorđević family in the Nemanjids' Footsteps? 785
  - 9 "Holy Homeland" and National Gods – Bulgaria, Serbia, and Macedonia as Religious-National Spaces of Remembrance 801
  - 10 Interim Assessment 838
- 5 Conclusion 842
  - 1 Transethnic Missionaries, Miracle Workers, Tsarist Cities, and Dynasties – Religious Memory-Figures in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Era 842

- 2 Religious Memory-Figures between Politics and Nation – Setting the Course in the "Long 19th Century" 846
- 3 Religious Memory-Figures as Media of the Blueprints of Modern Mass Societies and the Sacralization of the Nation (1918–1944) 868
- 4 Recapitulation within the European Framework 884
- 5 Religious Memory-Figures in a Diachronic View between "longue durée" and Discontinuity 891
- 6 Outlook 896

Bibliography 901

Index 970

815050